

On November 24th, the Center for Women and Development welcomed nearly 100 delegates to the third annual White Ribbon Breakfast event in Hanoi.

With the theme "Men's cooperation to ensure safety and justice for women and children who experience gender-based violence," this year's event attracted the participation of a number of agencies, including representatives of judicial agencies, legal assistance, child protection and social assistance offices, police agencies, the local Women's Union, lawyers, and other relevant ministries. Of note, Mm Elisa Fernandez Saenz, Head of Vietnam office of United Nations Entity for Gender Equality and the Empowerment of Women (UN Women), Mr. Craig Chittick, Australian Ambassador to Vietnam, representatives of other embassies, international organizations and musician/ singer Hoang Bach— ambassador of the HeforShe movement—attended the event.

Written by Administrator

Written by Administrator

<https://goo.gl/pPY46w>